

Ain't No Use In Tryin' by Trampled by Turtles (2004)

Intro: |G |F |C |C (4X)

Well I got years of livin', by and how I choose.

I ain't never been a gambler 'cause I's always bound to lose.

My buddy's they drink liquor, sometimes I go along.

I got a girl who don't like that at all.

Chorus

Well, you know I wouldn't fight, if these guys wouldn't shove me.

Now I can't go home because my baby she don't love me.

There ain't no use in tryin' anymore. 2X (3X last time, last slow)

Well last week or so, I woke up in a cell.

I don't know how I got there but my head it hurt like hell.

The guards already knew my name before I came inside,

I got a girl who don't like that at all.

Chorus then Instrumental: 2X (|F|F|C|C|G|G|F|C|C|) (follows verse)

Well some guy downtown, he come pushing me around.

So I let one loose I left that feller lying on the ground.

The police were waitin' for me, as I came runnin' out.

I got a girl who don't like that at all.

Chorus
