IT'S THE PHONE - Cheryl Wheeler

4/4 Am (MOZART symphony #40 in Gm)
It's the phone get the phone there's a phone call--
E7
Fish it out press the talk button right now

Anytime anywhere there's a phone call
Am
We will answer and start talking real loud
E7 Am E7 Am
In their odes to Joy and Jesus do you think they once foresaw their E7 Am
pieces in our wireless devices
E7
all~ across- the- pla-net blah blah blah blah blah~ ~ ~ ~ ~ ~ ~ ~ ~ ~ ah.

3/4 Am (FUR ELISE) E7 Am
the strains of music all around short little beeps cut through the din
E7 Am E7 Am
I've come to love that Motorola-sound not harpsichord or violin
C G Am E7
I know Ludwig-- would be so proud that "Fur Elise" could beep so loud
C G
Rossini too and Brahms and Bach
Am E7
and Mozart and Rachmaninoff ~ inoff ~ eno —— ugh

4/4 A (WILLIAM TELL OVERATURE) A E7 A
Hold the fries keep your eyes on the road somehow
E7
Pretty awk-ward to talk on the phone right now
A A E7 A
To the whims of the Cell Tower Gods I bow
E(7) A
and I hope-- the local laws allow.

A E7 (ODE TO JOY) A E7
It's so crowded you're so loud it's some deaf guy you're talk--ing to-
A E7 A E7 A
All of us on this Hertz bus attempt to turn our backs-- to you
E7 A E7 A E7 A A E7
You're impinging see us cringing dir~ty looks aimed at— your-head
A E7 A E7 A E7 A
Not proud of it but I admit I wish your battery- was dead--
